"A message to the Italians of Connecticut from the Connecticut State Council of Defense:

"The land of your birth and the land of your adoption are fighting in a common cause, the cause of Freedom and Democracy.

"The United States of America is rapidly marshaling all her tremendous resources in men, money and munitions to go to the aid of her sisters in Europe, Italy, France, Great Britain and the rest of the allies.

"America will not think of peace until the cause of democracy is secured, founded on victory and until the German war lords have been made helpless in their efforts to crush liberty and justice.

"Give your full, sincere support to the allies and freedom to the world.

"Give your full, sincere support to the United States of America.

"Your relatives and friends in Italy, need encouragement and discouragement. When you write to them, tell them what America is preparing to do to help them.

"The first soldiers of the United States have gone into battle on the firing line in Europe. They are but the vanguard of many hundreds of thousands that will follow. Some are in training here; others are already within sound of cannon fire. They will return until they return victorious.

"All America is united in the task of sending millions of tons of munitions, food and other supplies to the war zone, and American warships are guarding the ships in which they are being transported. A fleet of airplanes greater than has ever before been dreamed of is being built and will soon be doing vital work in Europe.

"Stand by America and stand by Italy."

QUEEN ESTHER CIRCLE'S SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT

Reading by Miss Bessie G. Whiting a Feature of the Evening.

The Queen Esther Circle gave a well attended entertainment Friday evening at the Trinity Methodist church. The main feature of the entertainment was a monologue, "Come Out of the Higher," given by Miss Bessie G. Whiting, of Boston. The circle of young ladies that gave the entertainment are interested in the Missionary work of the church and the proceeds of the entertainment are to be used to help pay for the education of a little Indian girl whom the circle have for several years assisted.

Removes Mother As Child's Guardian

Judge Aying Places Evelyn Josephine Rydholm in Her Grandmother's Care—Hearing Held in Probate Court on Petition of Arthur C. Rydholm—Mother Takes Appeal from Judge's Decision.

At a hearing in the probate court in this city on Friday Hon. Nelson J. Aying, judge, found sufficient cause to remove Josephine Rydholm Simpson as guardian of her daughter, Evelyn Josephine Rydholm, and to invest the guardianship in the child's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Sophia P. Rydholm.

The hearing was held before Judge Aying on the petition of Arthur C. Rydholm, son of the child's mother, for the removal of Mrs. Simpson as guardian, claiming that she was not a person to whom the care of her own child could be trusted. Attorney J. J. Desmond represented the petitioner and Attorney Thomas J. Kelly, the respondent.

The mother of the child is the widow of David Rydholm, who was elected to work on a telegraph pole in this city some months ago. She has since married a soldier who is now out of town. An appeal has been taken in the case.
